ECF CASE

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiffs Janelle Denalli, Gloria Fields, Jasmine Felipe, Esmirna Munoz, Caroline D. Espinal and Sabrina S. Martinez, individually, on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated and as Class Representatives by their attorneys, Lipman & Plesur, LLP, complain of Defendants SCE Group Inc. d/b/a Sin City, Gus Drakopoulos, Kevin Wells and Danny Cotton ("SCE" or "defendants"), as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiffs complain on behalf of themselves, and other current and former employees of defendants, who are employed by defendants as cocktail waitresses, dancers, bartenders and possibly other titles or in a similarly situated capacity who may elect to opt-in to this action pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C.A. § 216(b) ("FLSA"), that they are owed: (i) minimum wages, (ii) overtime premium pay and (ii) liquidated damages pursuant to the FLSA.

2. Plaintiffs further complain pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 23 on behalf of themselves, and a putative class of other similarly situated current and former employees of defendants who worked as cocktail waitresses, dancers, bartender and possibly in other titles, that they are owed additional wages and amounts from defendants for failure to pay minimum wages, overtime premium pay, spread of hours pay and for unlawful deductions from wages under the New York State Minimum Wage Order for the Restaurant Industry, N.Y. Comp. Codes R. & Regs., Part 137, Title 12, § 137, the New York Minimum Wage Act, New York Labor Law §§ 650 et seq., and the New York Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “NYLL”).

3. Plaintiffs further complain pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 23 on behalf of themselves, and a putative class of other similarly situated current and former employees of defendants who worked as cocktail waitresses and possibly in other titles, that they were sexually harassed, otherwise treated differently with respect to the terms, conditions and privileges of employment and subjected to a pattern and practice of such unlawful discrimination because of their gender in violation of the New York Human Rights Law, N.Y. Exec. Law § 290 et seq. (hereinafter referred to as the “NYSHRL”) and the New York City Human Rights Law, N.Y.C. Admin. Code § 8-101 et seq. (hereinafter referred to as the “NYCHRL”).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. Plaintiffs invoke the jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 216, and the supplemental jurisdiction statute, 28 U.S.C. § 1337, in that the state and federal claims arise from a common nucleus of operative facts such that they are so related that they form part of the same case or controversy under Article III of the United States Constitution.

5. The venue of this action is proper because the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred within, and defendants conduct business within, the Southern District of New York.

PARTIES

6. Plaintiffs and their similarly situated co-workers were employed by defendants as Cocktail Waitresses and possibly in other titles at an adult entertainment club in the Bronx called Sin City (hereinafter the “Sin City Club”).

7. Plaintiff Janelle Denalli (“Plaintiff Denalli”) is an adult individual residing in Nassau County, New York. Plaintiff Denalli was employed by defendants as a Cocktail Waitress from in or about November 2009 to on or about May 28, 2010.

8. Plaintiff Gloria Fields (“Plaintiff Fields”) is an adult individual residing in Queens County, New York. Plaintiff Fields was employed by defendants as a Cocktail Waitress from in or about January 2008 to in or about May 2010.

9. Plaintiff Jasmine Felipe (“Plaintiff Felipe”) is an adult individual residing in Bronx County, New York. Plaintiff Felipe has been employed by defendants as a Cocktail Waitress from in or about July 2006 to in or about December 2009.

10. Plaintiff Esmirna Munoz (“Plaintiff Munoz”) is an adult individual residing in Bronx County, New York. Plaintiff Munoz has been employed by defendants as a Cocktail Waitress from in or about August 2009 to in or about February 2010.

11. Plaintiff Caroline D. Espinal (“Plaintiff Espinal”) is an adult individual residing in Bronx County, New York. Plaintiff Espinal has been employed by defendants as a Cocktail Waitress from in or about June 2009 to on or about May 28, 2010.

12. Plaintiff Sabrina S. Martinez (“Plaintiff Martinez”) is an adult individual residing in Bronx County, New York. Plaintiff Martinez has been employed by defendants as a Cocktail Waitress from in or about June 2008 to on or about May 1, 2010.

13. At all times relevant, defendants were employers and covered by the FLSA, NYLL, NYSHRL and the NYCHRL.

14. Defendant SCE Group Inc. (“Defendant SCE”) is headquartered at 2520 Park Avenue, Bronx, New York and, inter alia, operates the Sin City Club.

15. Upon information and belief, Defendant Gus Drakopoulos (“Defendant Drakopoulos”) serves as an owner and officer of Defendant SCE. Defendant Drakopoulos is sued individually and in his capacity as an owner, officer, joint employer and/or agent of Defendant SCE and resides in New York.

16. Upon information and belief, Defendant Drakopoulos was and is the principal, agent, partner, joint venturer, controlling shareholder of Defendant SCE, and/or was engaged with the other defendants in a joint enterprise for profit, and bore such other relationships to the other defendants so as to be liable for their conduct.

17. Upon information and belief, Defendant Drakopoulos manages the day-to-day operations, controls hiring and firing, determines the hours of operation, employee schedules and is an employer pursuant to the FLSA, NYLL, NYSHRL and the NYCHRL.

18. Upon information and belief, Defendant Drakopoulos had responsibility for defendants’ wage-hour policies and practices, including, but not limited to, time-keeping and payroll policies, policies governing the allocations of tips/and or gratuities, and the policies set forth in the employee guidelines that applied to employees at the Sin City Club.

19. Upon information and belief, Defendant Kevin Wells (“Defendant Wells”) is employed by Defendant SCE as a Manager.

20. Upon information and belief, Defendant Wells manages the day-to-day operations, controls hiring and firing, determines the employee schedules and is an employer or agent of the employer pursuant to the FLSA, NYLL, NYSHRL and the NYCHRL.

21. Upon information and belief, Defendant Danny Cotton (“Defendant Cotton”) is employed by Defendant SCE as a Manager.

22. Upon information and belief, Defendant Cotton manages the day-to-day operations, controls hiring and firing, determines the employee schedules and is an employer or agent of the employer pursuant to the FLSA, NYLL, NYSHRL and the NYCHRL.

23. At all relevant times, defendants affected commerce within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 203(b).

24. Upon information and belief, Defendant SCE is a domestic corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

25. At all relevant times, one or more defendants employed and/or jointly employed plaintiffs.

26. The gross annual volume of sales made or business done by Defendant SCE, for each year of the past three years, was not less than $500,000.00.

27. Defendants have maintained a common policy and practice of, inter alia: (1) not paying for all hours worked, (2) not paying minimum wage, (3) not paying overtime premium pay for work in excess of forty (40) hours a week, (3) taking a portion of the earned tips; (4) making improper deductions from wages, (5) not making the required spread of hours wage payments, (6) not reimbursing for uniform expenses; and, (6) engaging in verbal and physical sexual harassment.

28. The named plaintiffs bring this action on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

29. Plaintiffs bring this action pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 to remedy violations of the New York Labor Law (“NYLL”) Article 6 §§ 190 et seq. and Article 19 §§ 650 et seq., and supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations as well as the NYSHRL and the NYCHRL. Plaintiffs sue on their behalf and on behalf of a class of persons pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 23.

30. The plaintiffs bring this case for a putative class that worked, in violation of the NYLL for the six years preceding the filing of this action and for the past three years under the NYSHRL and NYCHRL (the “class periods”).

31. Upon information and belief, the unlawful wage related practices and policies are ongoing.

32. The employees in the Class identified above are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable. Although the precise number of such employees is unknown, and facts on which calculation of that number are presently within the sole control of defendants, upon information and belief, there were well over forty (40) members of the Class during the class period.

33. There are questions of law and fact common to the Class which predominate over questions affecting only individual members of the Class, including:

- a. whether defendants failed to compensate plaintiffs for all hours worked within the meaning of the NYLL;
- b. whether defendants failed to compensate plaintiffs the minimum wage for all hours worked;
- c. whether defendants improperly made deductions from plaintiffs' wages;
- d. whether defendants failed to pay plaintiffs their earned gratuities and/or unlawfully misdirected a portion of the gratuities to management;
- e. whether defendants failed to pay plaintiffs and their similarly situated co-workers their "spread of hours" pay;
- f. whether defendants failed to reimburse plaintiffs for uniforms and related expenses; and,
- g. whether defendants subjected plaintiffs to a pattern and practice of sexual harassment other unlawful terms and conditions of employment in violation of the NYSHRL and the NYCHRL.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

34. Plaintiffs were employed as Cocktail Waitresses, and possibly worked in other titles, serving food and drink in the Sin City Club.

35. Plaintiffs were required to purchase uniforms from defendants and were not reimbursed for their cost or the maintenance of these uniforms.

36. Plaintiffs were paid below both state and federal minimum wage.

37. Upon information and belief, at the time of hire, plaintiffs were informed that they would be paid a shift rate plus earned gratuities/tips. However, defendants frequently failed to pay plaintiffs any or all of the shift pay.

38. The defendants, at times, confiscated a portion of the tips earned by plaintiffs.

39. Upon information and belief, at times, plaintiffs were required to work more than ten (10) hours per day and were not paid any "spread of hours" pay.

40. Plaintiffs, at times, were required to share a portion of the tips earned with defendants.

41. Plaintiffs' wages were subject to many deductions by defendants. Frequently, a manager would approach an employee, accuse the employee of some infraction of the work rules and demand an immediate, cash payment.

42. Some of the purported reasons for these deductions, include, but are not limited to, inter alia, the following: checking a cell phone, having two or more women waiting by the entrance, making a personal call at work, failing to carry a pen, refusing to go to Yankee Stadium to do promotional work, taking a cigarette break, not wearing hair down, wearing incorrect heel size, not wearing facial make-up to defendants' satisfaction, not wearing high heels when you are required to clean the club, chewing gum, eating food after 11:00 p.m. and leaving a shift early due to illness.

43. Dancers and bartenders were also subject to these improper deductions from wages.

44. Plaintiffs were required to start their shifts with a specified amount of cash

(hereafter the “bank”). Upon information and belief, at times, defendants’ deductions from wages were greater than plaintiffs’ earnings or bank.

45. Plaintiffs were required to tip-out bussers and bartenders even if their earned tips were not sufficient to cover the required tip-out.

46. Plaintiffs were not informed about any tip credit or the minimum wage.

47. Upon information and belief, various employees complained about defendants’ pay policies and the deductions from wages and defendants ignored these complaints.

48. Upon information and belief, plaintiffs, at times, worked in excess of forty (40) hours in the workweek and were not paid overtime premium pay for such work.

49. Plaintiffs were subject to improper sexual harassment from defendants including, improper touching and verbal comments. Defendants maintained a sexually hostile workplace where unwelcome acts of a sexual nature were not only condoned, but encouraged.

50. Plaintiffs, at times, were subjected to improper, touching by Defendants Wells and Cotton that included, inter alia, slapping, grabbing or poking of buttocks, chest and private body parts.

51. Plaintiffs, at times, were subjected to offensive and improper sexually harassing comments and conduct from Defendants Drakopoulos, Wells and Cotton, and, at times, defendants requested sexual favors.

52. Those plaintiffs who refused to engage in sex acts or tolerate the verbal and physical sexual harassment from defendants, were not treated as favorably as those that tolerated this. For employees who tolerated the sexual harassment or engaged in the sexual conduct, there were perks, such as, such as, inter alia, being allowed to wear flats when cleaning, being given the best tables and customers and/or the VIP section more frequently, and, being allowed to arrive late and and/or leave early without forfeiting shift pay.

53. Those who complained about, protested and/or rebuffed the unwanted and offensive sexual conduct and comments were subjected to worse terms and conditions of employment.

54. Frequently, as each of the plaintiffs made clear that the sexual harassment was unwelcome, she was retaliated against by being treated more harshly, including, for example, being subjected to assault and battery, even more hostile verbal abuse and additional wage abuses.

55. Plaintiffs were, at times, touched in a very aggressive and sexual manner by members of management, such that it caused severe physical pain.

Janelle Denalli

56. Defendant Wells subjected Plaintiff Denalli, inter alia, to the following:

- a. picked up her foot, stuck it in his mouth and started sucking it;
- b. touched, in an intimate manner, the inside and outside of her legs;
- c. slapped or grabbed her buttocks;
- d. pulled on her hair very hard;
- e. asked her to sleep at his house;
- f. made remarks about having sex with her;
- g. made comments about her breasts;
- h. try to pull her breasts out of her bra; and,

i. push money down her bustier.

57. Defendant Cotton touched and grabbed at Plaintiff Denalli's breasts.

58. On the last day of plaintiff's employment by Sin City Club, Defendant Wells started yelling at Plaintiff Denalli and telling her she talked back too much. He then put her in the hallway, pushed her to sit in a chair and grabbed her face very hard. Ms. Denalli told him he was hurting her and he refused to stop, then, he told her to leave the club and go home.

59. Subsequent to her discharge, Plaintiff Denalli was denied her bottle check (the monthly incentive pay based on a percent of sales of liquor bottles sold) in retaliation.

Gloria Fields

60. Plaintiff Fields is an African-American female.

61. Defendant Wells subjected Plaintiff Fields, inter alia, to the following:

- a. pulling down her shorts or top; place his hands on her body saying things like, "let's go back to the champagne room";
- b. stroke her breasts;
- c. poke his fingers into her buttocks; and,
- d. touch body parts such that plaintiff Fields urinated on herself in the presence of others causing her severe humiliation.

62. Defendant Drakopoulos used the word "nigger" when speaking in the presence of Plaintiff Fields and would say things like "you are very attractive for a Black girl."

Jasmine Felipe

63. Plaintiff Felipe is a Hispanic female.

64. Defendant Drakopoulos made it clear to Plaintiff Felipe that he wanted her to perform sexual favors for him. For example, after mention of a pretty scarf, he stated to Plaintiff Felipe, “you want it; you have to suck my dick.”

65. Defendant Drakopoulos made racially offensive comments, inter alia, like “you talk like you are from the projects” and “you present yourself real ghetto.”

66. Defendant Wells, subjected Plaintiff Felipe to offensive sexual harassment, inter alia, including comments about her weight and he made frequent attempts to gain sexual favors from her.

67. In or about September 2009, Defendants refused to allow Plaintiff Felipe to leave the club. Subsequently, on account of this and all of the harassment and improper conduct and comments, Plaintiff Felipe felt compelled to resign and thereby was subjected to a constructive discharge.

Esmirna Munoz

68. Defendant Wells subjected Plaintiff Munoz to offensive sexual harassment, including, inter alia, referring to Plaintiff Munoz’s vagina as a “double cheeseburger” and squeezed it really hard on numerous occasions causing physical pain.

69. On one occasion, Plaintiff Munoz was experiencing severe stomach pain while working at Sin City Club due to a kidney infection and was denied permission to leave work early. After several requests to Defendant Cotton, she was called an “ignorant, fat bitch” and told to take two weeks off to lose weight and to leave the Sin City Club immediately.

70. Due to all of the harassment and not feeling safe at work, Plaintiff Munoz felt compelled to resign and thereby was subjected to a constructive termination.

Caroline Espinal

71. Plaintiff Espinal was subjected to offensive sexual harassment, inter alia, including:

- a. Defendant Drakopoulos requested sexual favors;
- b. Defendant Wells would frequently touch her in an improper way without permission and continue even after she told him to stop. For example, he frequently grabbed her buttocks; and,
- c. Defendant Cotton would make sexual advances and say things like, “you don’t know what I want to do with you” or “let’s have a drink and then we’ll make out after” in the presence of customers and others.

72. Due to all of the harassment and the unsafe conditions at work, Plaintiff Espinal felt compelled to resign and thereby was constructively terminated.

73. Subsequent to the constructive discharge, defendants denied Plaintiff Espinal several checks in retaliation.

Sabrina S. Martinez

74. Plaintiff Martinez was subjected to offensive sexual harassment, inter alia, including:

- a. Defendant Wells berated Plaintiff Martinez frequently for allegedly being too “fat” and would tell her “if you keep on gaining weight, we are going to fire you,” and,
- b. Defendant Wells would touch her body parts, without her permission, grabbing her breasts and buttocks.

75. After Plaintiff Martinez had a knee injury, Defendant Drakopoulos would not allow her to wear “flat shoes” or any other reasonable accommodation, and thus denied Plaintiff Martinez a reasonable accommodation.

76. Due to all of the harassment and not feeling safe at work, Plaintiff Martinez felt compelled to resign and thereby was subjected to a constructive termination.
